

Development Stage Extension Sheet

Read over your paragraph and see whether you can add any of the following descriptive techniques to improve your fairytale:

Similes - comparing using 'like' or 'as' e.g. suddenly, it was as dark as night she was as beautiful as the sun it was like being stuck in a demented Disneyland she was acting like some sort of demon

Senses - what can the characters smell, feel or hear? e.g. the warmth of the log fire room the smell of fresh bread from the kitchen the sweet song of birds in the trees

Adjectives - words that describe nouns (people or things) e.g. a beautiful woman a wicked witch
a cold, grey, rainy day

Adverbs - words that describe how an action is carried out e.g. she ran desperately
he sighed happily
angrily, he stormed out

Write your paragraph out again, including these techniques, or find a clear way of inserting them into your paragraph without writing the whole thing out again.

Development Stage Extension Sheet

Read over your paragraph and see whether you can add any of the following descriptive techniques to improve your fairytale:

Similes - comparing using 'like' or 'as' e.g. suddenly, it was as dark as night
she was as beautiful as the sun
it was like being stuck in a demented Disneyland
she was acting like some sort of demon

Senses - what can the characters smell, feel or hear? e.g. the warmth of the log fire room
the smell of fresh bread from the kitchen
the sweet song of birds in the trees

Adjectives - words that describe nouns (people or things) e.g. a beautiful woman
a wicked witch
a cold, grey, rainy day

Adverbs - words that describe how an action is carried out e.g. she ran desperately
he sighed happily
angrily, he stormed out

Write your paragraph out again, including these techniques, or find a clear way of inserting them into your paragraph without writing the whole thing out again.